This Month

Leader In Me Habit - #8 - Find Your Voice

We are continuing to encourage students to be self-directed learners and monitor their own progress on independent work.

Reminders

- *Please send a healthy snack and water with your child daily.
- *Water bottles with a sport top lid (pop top) are the best. This helps to avoid damaging spills.
- *Go over your child's work in their Thursday Folder. Celebrate the good work and review areas of difficulty.

Learning Targets

Math - We will be finishing up measurement. Then we will study Personal Financial Literacy. Finally we will review before our end of the year benchmark.

Reading - We will begin end of the year assessments. We will also finish up our Animal Research Projects.

Writing - We will be working on expository writing for our Animal Research Projects.

Social Studies - We will be finishing up our study of economics. Then we will move into a study of biographies.

Science - We will continue our learning of how the physical characteristics of animals and plants help them meet their basic needs. We will also learn about examples of living organisms that depend on each other and their environment to survive. This will be completed with our Animal Research project.
